The Action Was Taken at a Meeting of the Plumbers Held Last Night Plumbing Badly Needed.

In all probability the strike of the Houston plumbers will be settled at a conference to be held this morning between the master plumbers and the strikers. The union held a regular meeting last night, at which were present several representatives from the master plumbers. The matter was discussed pro and con and it was mustly decided to leave the question to a committee of siz, three from the journeymen and three from the mas-This committee will meet this morning at the establishment of the Keithly
